

DICK MACHINE IS IN FULL CONTROL

REPUBLICANS ENDORSE SENATORS MORE CORDIALLY THAN THEY DO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Convention Quite Willing To Boom Foraker For Presidency But Senator Frowned On It.

EFFORT TO DEPOSE CHAIRMAN DICK FAILED

Platform Written By Organization—Vote Shows How Completely Senators Own the Party—Thompson Is Nominated For Secretary of State—C. W. Montgomery Names Frank L. Beggs.

The Ticket.
For Secretary of State,
Carmi Thompson, of Ironton.
For State School Commissioner,
Oliver Jones, of Stark.
For Board of Public Works,
George H. Watkins, of Pike.
For Dairy and Food Commissioner,
R. W. Dunlap, of Pickaway.

Convention Hall, Dayton, O., Sept. 12.—After nominating the ticket, which appears at the head of this dispatch, the Republican state convention which was managed wholly by Senators Dick and Foraker, adjourned this afternoon at 2:42 o'clock.

Frank L. Beggs of Newark, made a gallant fight for the nomination of state dairy and food commissioner, but he lost to R. W. Dunlap of Pickaway county. It took two ballots to decide this nomination.

J. C. Foster withdrew from the race of the board of public works on the first roll call and G. H. Watkins was nominated.

Scripps-McRae Press Association Headquarters, Convention Hall, Dayton, O., Sept. 12.—The Republican state convention met today at 10:20 o'clock. Prayer was offered by Dr. H. C. Jameson. Delegates and spectators began filing into the hall long before the convention opened. It was comfortable because of the use of many revolving electric fans. Ex-Governor Herrick and each notable was given a hearty welcome. Senator Foraker got great applause when he entered.

Delegate Holcomb of Cleveland, moved that Senator Dick be requested to decline the election as state chairman. Congressman Burton took the stage to advocate the adoption of the motion. There were calls for Dick, but Foraker rushed to the stage to defend his colleague. There were calls for Dick and Daugherty, and a great uproar followed. Harry M. Daugherty took the stage to support the anti-Dick motion.

As Mr. Burton mounted the platform to speak a wild demonstration greeted him. The chairman declared the anti-Dick motion lost and the roll call was demanded. In his speech Mr. Burton said:

"Let there be a vote before the convention. Shall Dick manage the campaign?" (Thunderous cries of "No.") "If Dick steps aside, it means a certain party victory," said Burton. He closed with a challenge to the senatorial alliance to answer the battle cry. Senator Foraker said:

"I see no reason why a man good enough to be chairman for President McKinley and unanimously chosen United States Senator should not now be good enough to be chairman."

There were loud cheers and great applause at first for Daugherty, but suddenly they changed to a storm of hisses and derisive yells. A vote on the Holcomb motion was for Dick 574, as against 234. Dick briefly thanked the convention. The result clearly expressed the supremacy of the machine.

The platform framed by Dick and Foraker was reported and adopted. The platform not only does not endorse the senators less cordially than President Roosevelt, but endorses them more cordially. As to Roosevelt it commends and approves and to the senators it commends and approves without reservation. The official vote on the resolution was for 573, against 285.

Delegate Boyd of Cleveland presented a minority report providing that United States senators shall be nominated at primaries by a popular vote, and directing the state committee to place it in force at once. The report also insisted that Congress should now and for all time to come make such changes in the tariff as are necessary, but the minority report was defeated.

Because Senator Foraker himself asked the question he not brought up, there was no resolution today offered to endorse him for President.

A resolution eulogizing the late Governor Pattison and lamenting his death was adopted.

FRANK L. BEGGS IS DEFEATED BY DUNLAP OF PICKAWAY
Dayton, O., Sept. 12.—Frank L. Beggs, of Newark, was defeated in his effort to win the nomination for state dairy and food commissioner, Mr. R. W. Dunlap of Pickaway county winning on the second ballot. Here is how the vote stood this afternoon:

First ballot—Beggs 185, Young 90, Ankeney 148, Dunlap 226, Demuth 101.

Second ballot—Beggs 76, Dunlap 460, Ankeney 20, Young 302, Demuth 2.

CHAS. W. MONTGOMERY NOMINATES MR. BEGGS

Geo. Hamilton, Chairman of Licking Delegation—Lincoln Russell is on Resolutions Committee.

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 12.—The Licking county delegation organized by electing George (Cox) Hamilton chairman. Attorney Lincoln C. Russell of Newark, was made Seventeenth district representative on the resolutions committee, while Senator W. L. Alwell of Johnstown, was made member of the rules and order of business committee.

The chances of Frank L. Beggs for securing the nomination for dairy and food commissioner seem to be good this morning. Mr. Beggs, who has the solid support of the Seventeenth district, and who has been promised support from many sections of the state, has made a good impression on his delegates, but owing to the bitter fight between the Dick-Foraker and Burton-Daugherty forces, the person of the ticket to be nominated has taken a back seat. About 50 men are here from Licking county, and they are booming Beggs to the best of their ability and are assisted by the delegations from the other four counties of the Seventeenth district.

Judge Snyder of Wooster, was scheduled to place the name of Mr. Beggs in nomination before the convention, but the judge has another sick spell, such as seized him in Coshocton recently, and is not attending the convention. The honor of making the speech has therefore been conferred upon Charles W. Montgomery of Newark, law partner of Edward Kibler. Mr. Montgomery is primed for the speech and will certainly make a good impression before the convention.

PLATFORM
Built by Dick and Foraker—It Heartily Endorses Both of the Ohio Senators.

Convention Hall, Dayton, Sept. 12.—The platform to be reported by the resolutions committee gives the most qualified and cordial endorsement that language can convey to Senators Foraker and Dick. It specifically endorses the railway rate regulation policy of President Roosevelt, declares for a general primary election law for all officers without limit as to state, county or municipality until such a law shall be enacted. There is a declaration for the nomination of United States senators by state conventions.

The tariff plank provides for a revision policy as outlined in the recent letter of Roosevelt to Congressman Watson of Indiana. There is a plank declaring for the local option principle in all temperance legislation, and a larger navy is endorsed, as is also the merchant marine. The resolutions advocate that a law be passed empowering the governor to appoint a commission to draft a taxation constitutional amendment for submission to the legislature. The temperance measures of the last legislature were endorsed.

The resolutions committee last night organized by electing ex-Lieutenant Governor Harding as chairman. The committee was long in session. The matter was referred to a sub-committee composed of Messrs. Harding, Jacob Bromwell, Albert Douglass, Congressman Pannon, Congressman Keifer and Committeeman McPherson to do the work of writing the platform as it was to be presented to the convention. The platform adopted so far as the planks of vital importance are concerned, was as prepared by Foraker and Dick and furnished Bromwell, their representative on the committee.

FLUSHED BY VICTORY BOTH OF SENATORS ARE RUBBING IT IN

Dayton, O., Sept. 12.—Senatorial control was quick acting. An hour after the district meetings yesterday afternoon proved that a large majority of the delegates were with the senators. Mr. Foraker, addressing the delegates, was making fun of President Roosevelt and declaring he would take no orders respecting his course as senator. Soon after the convention committee got together the combine proceeded to rub it in on the great mass of Republicans who have contended for better conditions in the party. Dick was elected chairman of the state executive committee. The combine wrote the platform planks considered by the committee. With the settlement of the question of control, the candidates got busy. For secretary of state Carmi Thompson showed the best organized and continued in the lead.

Walter Brown, of Toledo, was elected chairman of the state central committee. Wade Cushing of Hamilton, was selected permanent secretary of the convention over John R. Malloy.

Cushing though elected permanent secretary of the convention was asked to resign by Malloy today. "I will resign because Malloy asked me to," said Cushing.

THOMPSON WINS.
Dayton, Sept. 12.—Carmi Thompson of Ironton was nominated for secretary of state.

CARMI A. THOMPSON.

FORAKER SPEECH
Amazes Ohio Politicians—Implied Insult to President Roosevelt in His Dayton Address.

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 12.—The only talk about a hot-lubbers last night was the audacious speech of Senator Foraker, delivered in the afternoon, when he virtually threw the sage of battle to Roosevelt and dared his enemies to do their worst, even with the back of their hands. Since the day of the great contest, Foraker has been the most conservative of the senatorial alliance when the senator has been in the city, and his assistants would take no action until his return.

Amable Snod, various other church officials and wives and children of President Smith are named as witnesses.

SEVEN ARE KILLED IN A COLLISION THIS MORNING

WESTERN & ATLANTIC TRAINS HIT HEAD-ON NEAR RINGOLD, GEORGIA.

PROPERTY DAMAGE IS HEAVY

Alleged That Engineer Clements of First Section Forgot Orders and Ran Fast Switch.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 12.—Seven men were crushed to death, and several others injured in a head-on collision between fast flying freight trains on the Western & Atlantic railroad at Ringgold today. Travelling at high speed to make up time, the trains crashed into each other and both engines were demolished and part of the trains derailed. The dead and injured were pinioned in the wreckage. Conflicting orders to the crews of the trains is thought to be responsible for the wreck. A wrecking train is en route to the scene. The dead are: Charles W. Fisher, engineer; Thomas Whitehead, conductor; W. B. Skelton, fireman; Clyde Clemmings, engineer; Datton Smith, engineer; K. A. Kincaun, fireman. One unknown fireman. The property loss is heavy.

KILLED BY ENGINE

Switchman Lay for Two Hours This Morning Directing the Work of Rescue.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 12.—Lying under his engine with his legs and arms crushed, and suffering agony from the heat of the boiler, Hugh Darlington, a Louisville & Nashville switchman for two hours this morning directed the 30 men working to rescue him. They found it necessary to take the engine almost apart. Physicians crawled under it to give him chloroform, but he refused it. He died two hours after being taken out.

BOOM FOR MAGOON.
Panama, Sept. 12.—A presidential boom for Charles E. Magoon, retiring governor of the canal zone, who is to go to the Philippines, has been launched here. The boom was given the first impetus by members of Congress, so it really carries little weight so far as practical politics is concerned, but the admirers of the governor are hoping the action will call forth a response in the United States.

WARRANT FOR SMITH IS WANTED BY OWEN

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 12.—A Smith, of the Mormon church, has been demanded by Charles Mostyn Owen, a detective who was employed against B. H. Roberts and later against Senator Reed Smoot by the protesters in each case.

Owen swore to a complaint charging unlawful relations between the president of the church and Mary T. Schwartz Smith, a plural wife, to whom a son was born June 1 last. The warrant before it is served must have the approval of the county attorney, P. H. Christensen, or one of his deputies. Mr. Christensen is out of the city, and his assistants would take no action until his return.

Amable Snod, various other church officials and wives and children of President Smith are named as witnesses.

ROCKEFELLER

Pleads Not Guilty to All Charges Brought Against the Standard Oil Company.

Findlay, Ohio, Sept. 12.—John D. Rockefeller has pleaded "not guilty" to all charges brought against his Standard Oil company by Prosecutors David in the local courts. The defendant in the various cases against the company has appeared in court today and entered their pleas. Each demand of a separate trial by jury.

In order to make this possible Judge Barker adjourned the September term of court to the first Monday in October.

It has not been definitely settled whether the trial will begin that day, although it is stated that this will be the case.

PAUL STENSLAND IS ON WAY HOME

(Bulletin.)
Tangier, Morocco, Sept. 12.—Paul O. Stensland, the defaulting banker of Chicago, sailed for New York today on the liner Prinz Adelbert, in custody of officers.

The Prinz Adelbert went out of her course to call at Tangier, as Olson was afraid to take his prisoner to any European port, fearing that Stensland might attempt to take advantage of some technicality of extradition treaties to avoid being taken back to the United States.

Stensland was taken to the pier under military guard. He appeared pale and haggard. He is a nervous wreck and is in bad physical condition. At times he is extremely despondent and sinks into fits of weeping, followed by loud protestations of his innocence. He asks continually: "What do the people of America think of me?"

It is believed by many persons who have seen the absconder that his mind is unbalanced and that he will probably offer a plea of insanity as his defense.

The authorities in charge of Stensland are extremely reticent in regard to his attempt at suicide. No details of his effort against his life are given out, but the statement is vouched for by the highest authority. It is known that since making the attempt Stensland has been deprived of a knife at meal times and that his cravat was also taken away from him.

TYRANNY INDICTMENTS.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—(Bulletin.)—Twenty indictments charging forgery against Paul O. Stensland and Henry W. Hering, president and cashier of the wrecked bank, were returned by the grand jury today.

MAN MANGLED UNDER WHEELS OF A B. & O. ENGINE

SON OF SUPERINTENDENT OF A HOMESTEAD STEEL MILL—MEETS HIS DEATH.

FORMERLY WORKED IN UTICA

Merritt Lying on Track Between Second and Third Streets Here on Tuesday Night.

Homer Merritt, aged about 45 years, known as Herman Douglas and Mack Douglas, was struck by a B. & O. yard engine, No. 1160, Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock, while lying on the track between Second and Third streets. Merritt's father is the superintendent of No. 119 steel mill for Andrew Carnegie, at Homestead, a suburb of Pittsburgh. The injuries of Merritt were of such a nature that death overcame him at 2 a. m. Wednesday at the Newark Sanitarium.

From the position of an influential employee of the great steel magnate, Carnegie, to the life of a roustabout, is the great downward stride which is credited to the unfortunate man. Merritt, who is a fine looking man, at one time held a place of trust and confidence, such as his father today holds, but, becoming the victim of drink, fell to the "common bum" sort of existence and was said to have been lying on the track intoxicated when the fatal accident occurred. The dead man has a wife and two grown children in New Lexington, a suburb of Allegheny, and a brother near Harrisburg.

As soon as the accident occurred the man was hastened to the Newark Sanitarium in Bowers & Criss Bros' ambulance, where Drs. Barnes, Shirer, Anderson and Hornby performed the double amputation required by the injured right arm and left foot. Merritt was also badly cut about the head, and had the right collar bone broken. After telling an Advocate reporter who he was and where his relatives could be located, the injured man begged pitifully for sleep until an anesthetic could be administered. In spite of his serious injuries, Merritt possessed the appearance of a man of strong constitution and seemed to have fair chances for recovery until early Wednesday morning when he began to fail rapidly.

The dead man was a window glass blower by trade and worked from place to place in this occupation, having been employed at Utica in the glass factory only a short time ago.

The remains will probably be shipped to the dead man's home in Pittsburg on Thursday.

ARMY AND NAVY READY TO MOVE TOWARDS CUBA

CRUISER DES MOINES AT KEY WEST IS ONLY EIGHT HOURS RUN FROM HAVANA.

UNCLE SAM'S EYE IS OPEN

No Intention of Government to Take Sides—Attitude of Capitalists. Day's News.

(Bulletin.)

Washington, Sept. 12.—Acting Secretary of State Bacon today announced that the United States cruiser Denver has been ordered to Havana, Cuba, and should arrive there tonight or tomorrow morning. The gunboat Marietta, which Bacon says is now at Monte Cristi, Santo Domingo, has been ordered to Cienfuegos, Cuba. The orders were issued by direction of President Roosevelt.

The Des Moines will be held at Key West until further orders.

It is the purpose of the administration to have these three vessels in readiness not only to protect Americans now in Cuba, but also to land marines in order to put a stop to the revolution if a request for such action should be made by the Cuban government.

The entire program regarding Cuban affairs is being managed by the president at Oyster Bay, and is said to be the result of plans laid several days ago. (usual activity has been displayed at the war and navy departments since the situation in Cuba became critical. One of the first evidences of the concern of the administration was the trip of Brigadier General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the army, to Oyster Bay about two weeks ago. At that time it was given out that Bell's visit was on account of the trouble occasioned by the presence of the negro troops at Brownsville, Texas. Although that matter was undoubtedly discussed, there is no question now but that the main purpose of his trip was to consult with the president regarding possible military operations in Cuba. In this connection there is some significance in the fact that today Major E. F. Ladd, one of the trusted officers of the military secretary's office, started for Havana on a month's leave of absence. Although it is given out that Major Ladd's reason for going to Cuba is to look out for certain private properties in which he is interested it is evidently part of the administration plan to have an army officer on the spot in case of trouble.

It is learned today that the orders to the Denver were issued before she left New London Conn., four days ago. Her destination as posted at that time at the navy department was Norfolk, Va.

She did not put in at Norfolk. Bacon has had several long conferences in the past 24 hours with Rear Admiral Converse, chief of the bureau of navigation, and both officers have been in close touch with the president at Oyster Bay by telegraph and telephone.

So far as can be learned, there have been no orders issued yet looking to the possible sending of troops to Cuba. It apparently being the belief of the administration that the ships with their marines, already ordered to the island will be ample to cope with the situation for the present.

It is hoped that the moral effect of three warships in Cuban waters will be such as to deter the revolutionists from any excesses directed at American property or citizens.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The President is keeping his eye on Cuba and is watching closely the progress of the revolution. As telegraphed the Advocate yesterday, the cruiser Des Moines has sailed for Key West which is only eight hours' run from Havana.

If the navy is making ready in other respects for contingencies in Cuba the fact is carefully concealed at the department, but it is known that the intention of the general board is to keep the ships in a state of preparation and it is believed there will be no difficulty in despatching almost immediately from home ports any naval force that might be required in Cuba.

For its part, the army is prepared to answer any call, though there are absolutely no orders yet from the president or secretary of war. The individual officers responsible for campaign work are merely making ready for any emergency without specific instructions.

In case the United States government finds it necessary to intervene in Cuban affairs under the provisions of the Platt amendment, which gives this government power to maintain public order, the forces which would have to be used for that purpose would be found in a much better state of preparation than when hostilities

ORGANIZATION IS VICTORIOUS IN CONVENTION

SENATOR DICK IS CHAIRMAN OF REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

MALLOY IS AGAIN SECRETARY

Gov. Harris Addresses Convention and Foraker Makes Amazing Speech.

Dayton, O., Sept. 12.—It is many a year since the Republicans of Ohio had as exciting a state convention as that held here in the Gem City of Ohio this week.

No convention by any party ever held in Ohio was more politic of interesting contests and political surprises.

A determined fight led by Congressman Burton of Cleveland and Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus was made to defeat "the organization" forces led by Senators Dick and Foraker, their chief object being to prevent if possible, the re-election of Senator Dick as chairman of the campaign committee. But in this the opposition failed, for the senatorial alliance won a big majority of the new central committee selected at the district caucuses, and the new committee met at once and re-elected Dick for chairman of the executive committee. This action on the part of the central committee is without precedent, as invariably the committee waits till after the convention to select the executive committee and name its officers. But while victory was fresh in the minds of all concerned and to show to the convention that Senator Dick still stands at the head of the party organization in Ohio, the committee proclaimed its preference on the chairmanship issue, and give the convention an opportunity to reverse it if so disposed.

As a result of the district meetings Senator Dick secured control of the following districts: First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth. W. S. Kent of Portage county a Dick adherent was elected central committeeman from Dick's district.

The opposition secured the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first, which gave them six districts.

New Central Committee.

The members of the new state committee were selected by the various district delegations as follows:

First District, Fred Bades, and Second, Peter W. Durr, Hamilton; Third, D. W. Allaman, Montgomery; Fourth, A. J. Hess, Snely; Fifth, William H. Phipps, Paulding; Sixth, George King, Warren; Seventh, R. H. McCloud, Madison; Eighth, N. T. Overturf, Delaware; Ninth, W. F. Brown, Lucas; Tenth, Orin B. Gould, Jackson; Eleventh, G. T. Drake, Perry; Twelfth, M. A. Karshner, Franklin; Thirteenth, T. E. Maxwell, Sandusky; Fourteenth, A. L. Garford, Miami; Fifteenth, Walter Black, Muskingum; Sixteenth, A. W. McDonald, Jefferson; Seventeenth, C. B. McCoy, Coshocton; Eighteenth, J. C. McNutt, Columbiana; Nineteenth, W. S. Kent, Portage; Twentieth, Maurice Maschke and Twenty-first, W. B. Black, Cuyahoga county.

Baker, Durr, Allaman, Hess, Phipps, King, Overturf, Brown, Gould, Drake, Maxwell, Black, McCoy and McNutt were classified as the Dick men on the committee; Karshner, Garford, McDonald, Kent, Maschke and Beck were aligned with the Burton and Daugherty faction, while McCloud was set down as doubtful.

The new committee met Tuesday night and elected Walter Brown of Toledo chairman. An unprecedented action by the committee was the election of chairman and secretary of the executive committee before the adjournment of the convention. Senator Dick was chosen for chairman by a vote of 14 to 7 and John R. Malloy was again named for secretary by a vote of 19 to 2.

The Burton-Daugherty faction expect Senator Dick's voluntary retirement from the chairmanship, but the senator declares he will "stand pat."

D. W. Allaman of the Third district, who won distinction as being the man who retired Mark Slater, started the stampede for the senatorial bandwagon. Following this break in the ranks of the opposition came a meeting of the state central committee wherein the committee recognized all those contestants in Gallia, Lawrence and Athens who were for the retention of Dick. After this it was easy sailing for the senatorial alliance.

Such events of the convention as these show that the two senators standing together are invincible, while standing alone both would probably have suffered the humiliation intended for them.

Senator West uttered a great truth when he said that the Dick opposition undertook too much at one stroke, the humiliation of the two senators jointly and the defeat of Dick for the chairmanship separately. This drove them together, and Foraker controlled enough districts to give Dick victory.

Result of Contests.

The old state central committee at its meeting prior to the convention, helped out its chairman, Orin B. Gould, by seating the Johnson delegation in Lawrence county and the Eagle delegation in Gallia county. This clinched the election of Gould to the state central committee. He probably would have been elected anyway, although he wanted these two counties to make sure. The committee also helped out Drake, the Dick candidate for state committeeman in the eleventh district, by seating the Bryson delegation in Athens county.

These were the only delegations in which there were contests. This action settled the contests in these districts in favor of Dick.

The state committee approved the action of Chairman Gould in his fight with the local committee on the ticket proposition, but a Burton man, Committeeman Maschke of Cleveland, voted against Gould.

Drafting the Platform.

Following are the members of the committee on resolutions: First district, Sherman T. McPherson, Hamilton; Second, Jacob H. Brownell, Hamilton; Third, U. S. Martin, Montgomery; Fourth, D. L. Gaskill, Darke; Fifth, F. L. Hoy, Deane; Sixth, C. L. Hildebrand, Clinton; Seventh, J. Warren Keifer, Clarke; Eighth, R. C. Cole, Hancock; Ninth, M. L. Case, Wood; Eleventh, Albert Douglas, Ross; Twelfth, Thomas H. Clarke, Franklin; Thirteenth, W. G. Harding, Marion; Fourteenth, Frank Patterson, Ashland; Fifteenth, C. F. Heeper, Washington; Sixteenth, C. L. Wiens, Belmont; Seventeenth, H. C. Russell, Licking; Eighteenth, Roscoe L. McCullough, Stark; Nineteenth, R. M. Wannamaker, Summit; Twentieth, C. W. McCallister, Cuyahoga; Twenty-first, W. H. Boyd, Cuyahoga.

The resolutions committee in session as a whole discussed the platform until late in the night, the main points of difference being tariff revision, primary elections and the wording of the paragraph endorsing the senators. A ringing endorsement of President Roosevelt was unanimously agreed to, the senatorial endorsement being made a matter of form only. At the request of the state board of commerce, a resolution was agreed to favoring appointment by the governor of a commission on taxation. The committee recessed until morning, to finally go over the draft of the platform before presenting it to the convention.

The platform endorses the railway rate bill passed by congress; favors a primary election law, and recommends that until legislation can be had the party committees authorize popular primaries for nominations of state and county officials; and tariff revision is favored in accordance with the recommendations made by President Roosevelt in his letter to Congressman Watson; for ship subsidy; for local option on temperance questions; and for nomination of candidates for United States senator by convention.

The final preparation of the platform was referred to a sub-committee consisting of Congressmen Keifer, Brownell and Bannan, Albert Douglas and W. G. Harding, which made its report to the full committee at 3 a. m. Wednesday.

Senator Foraker Spoke.
One of the chief incidents of the session of the convention Tuesday evening was the speech by Senator Foraker.

After former Governor Herrick concluded his speech as temporary chairman there were repeated calls for Foraker. Senator Foraker came forward and said he did not care to make a speech, but he was urged to do so. In compliance he delivered an extemporaneous speech. There was more of the old Foraker vim to it than has been heard from him for years. He touched on some of the points made by Chairman Herrick, criticizing in a somewhat jocular way some of the matters acted upon by President Roosevelt, especially joking about spelling revision.

Senator Foraker opened with an eloquent tribute to Governor Harris, describing the sterling qualities of that official, and continuing, aid in part: "Congressional elections are always important but they are especially and particularly so this year. They are thus unusually important because this year they involve not only the present complexion of the next house of representatives but as the governor has suggested and others have been pointing out, they involve also directly and immediately, the question whether or not the American people propose in November next to endorse and approve the administration of Theodore Roosevelt. President Roosevelt has had more to do than any other president ever before had with the legislation that congress has been enacting. President Roosevelt recognizes that. It was for that reason he himself took the initiative as to the campaign. He took it when a few weeks ago he called in conference with him at Oyster Bay the speaker of the house, Mr. Cannon, and various members of the congressional campaign committee and there determined what our platform should be in this campaign and determined, not that it should be as Governor Herrick has suggested, merely tariff revision, but that we should stand pat until after the next election. If the people of Ohio stand for whatever Roosevelt stands for they will not stand for tariff revision this year. For he himself has determined it, has spoken, has proclaimed it, not alone as an official result of that conference but in his somewhat celebrated letter to Mr. Watson. His idea is that our platform in this contest should be, not promises to the future but the performance of the past. Let us take an account of stock, says he, let us hold up to the people what we have done and let us find out whether or not they approve of what we have done. Now, what is it we have done? It is too late for me to tell you; the list of achievements is too long for me to enumerate."

Mr. Bryan, the peerless leader of the Democratic party has made a speech, one in particular, he has made many but one in particular, in which he has cast a horoscope and in which he has approved all we have done and does not seek to make the issues of 1903 on account of anything we have done, but says the issues will be two: Tariff revision and government ownership of the railroads. Mr. Bryan says we must have tariff revision. Some day, my fellow citizens, we will want it and we will have it, but that is a question for the Republican party to determine.

"The great mass of the people of the country while recognizing that schedules are not inviolate that they are made to be changed, are of the opinion so happily expressed by Speaker Cannon when he stated in his speech in the convention in Illinois that the party would revise the tariff not when Mr. Bryan or some other Democrat told us to, but we would do it when revision would do less harm than non-revision would do good. That is the position of the Republican party."

That is the opinion of President Roosevelt. That is the opinion of Speaker Cannon. That is the opinion, as I understand it, after all the great leaders in the Republican party of the nation. Let us not here today sound a discordant note.

"Just another word. I am a little touchy about some things. When I am told I am to stand for whatever some other man stands for no matter what it may be am I going to subscribe to it? It has been my pleasure to stand with President Roosevelt on most of his recommendations, but I cannot go with him on all of them; I draw the line for instance, on phonetic spelling. Phonetically it may be all right, but aesthetically it is to me impossible. No, I am not for it and I do not think the president will think any the less of me for speaking right out in meeting and saying that I am not for it. And it would not make a bit of difference to me if he did."

"I have always considered it an honor to be a United States senator. I never understood that somebody was to tell me how to vote either at that end of the line or this end of the line. Especially not about great and profound constitutional questions about which lawyers differ. I thought I was to work them out. I was to speak for you. I pursue that policy. If that is not right, if, on the contrary, a man is to be rebuked because he exercises the qualifications with which he is blessed, then you take all the honor away from the office, and so far as I am concerned you can take the office with it if the office does not carry with it the right of the man holding it to go according to his own judgment, to discharge, according to his sense of duty, free and untrammelled, the official obligation to support and maintain the constitution of the United States, which he takes when he enters upon his office. We are going to have a great convention tomorrow. In some respects the greatest in the history of this state, for it is to settle, among other things, the questions I have just adverted to. Of course, personally, I have some interest in that question, but I have no interest except that which is personal. I would not have the temerity to come here and beg you to indorse me."

GOV. A. L. HARRIS WIELDS THE GAVEL

In Making Speech as Permanent Chairman He Related History of the Party.

Dayton, O., Sept. 12.—When the convention assembled Wednesday morning to receive the reports of committees and nominate a ticket, the delegates were plainly under the strain of intense political excitement.

Governor Harris did not make a long speech. He thanked the committee on permanent organization for the honor conferred on him, after which he said in part: If I succeed as your presiding officer in this great convention, it can only be through your earnest and hearty support which I hope to receive. This convention is composed of good representative men, coming from all parts of the state to adopt a platform on which every Republican can stand and to nominate a ticket which every Republican will support at the coming election. While we are at present assembled under such favorable circumstances let us review briefly the past and look with confidence to the future.

For over half a century, Ohio has been a Republican state. There are exceptions to all rules, and Ohio has had her "off years." The records show that under normal conditions Ohio has always been Republican and that the reverses of "off years" were due to abnormal conditions that might have been prevented.

Our duty today is, therefore, to waive personal preferences in the interest of party principles. By getting together now such normal conditions would prevail as to secure the continuance of Republican prosperity.

We are told that there is no way of judging the future but by the past, and that history repeats itself. If we want to profit by our experience, we should remember that when the Republicans pull together, they have never failed to carry Ohio, and that the results in "off years" were due to a lack of harmony.

"The first ticket the Republicans nominated in Ohio was headed by Salmon P. Chase for governor, in 1855, and it was elected. There have been fifty-one state elections since that time and in only six of them have the Democrats elected their entire ticket.

In 1862 Armstrong, Democrat, was elected as secretary of state, because many thought that Lincoln was going too slow in prosecuting the civil war. In 1874, William Bell, Democrat, was elected as secretary of state during the greenback craze of that time.

In 1877, Bishop, Democrat, was elected as governor along with the entire Democratic ticket. At that time the O'Connor legislature made Pendleton senator. That legislature was named after its most notorious member, Representative O'Connor, of Montgomery county, who had previously served in the Michigan penitentiary. The affliction that befell Ohio then was due to the disaffections among so-called Stalwart Republicans over the Southern policy of President Hayes.

On account of the passage of the Pond law, the predecessor of the Scott, the Dow and the Aiken laws, the Republicans were defeated in 1882 and 1883. Townsend, Republican, was defeated by Newman, Democrat, for secretary of state in 1882, and Foraker was defeated by Hoadly for governor

Woman's Kidney Troubles

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing This Fatal Disease.

Of all the diseases known, with which women are afflicted, chronic kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Lydia E. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women, and thousands have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it. Derangements of the feminine organs quickly affect the kidneys, and when a woman has such symptoms as pain or weight in the loins, backache, bearing-down pains, swelling in the urine, unusual thirst, sealding or burning sensations or discharges from the bladder, or pain under the eyes or sharp pains in the back, running through the groin, she may infer that her kidneys are affected and should lose no time in combating the disease with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the woman's remedy for woman's ills.

The following letters show how marvelously successful it is.

Mrs. Samuel Frake, of Prospect Plains, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a Woman's Remedy for Woman's ills.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years with what the doctor called kidney trouble and congestion of the female organs. My back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered so with that bearing-down feeling I could hardly walk across the room. I did not get any better, so decided to stop doctoring with my physician and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am thankful to say it has entirely cured me. I do all my own work, have no more backache and all the bad symptoms have disappeared. I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all women suffering with kidney trouble to try it.

Mrs. J. W. Lang, of 626 Third Avenue, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

I have been a great sufferer with kidney trouble. My back ached all the time and I was discouraged. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure kidney disease, and I began to take it; and it has cured me when everything else had failed. I have recommended it to lots of people and they all praise it very highly.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from kidney trouble, or any form of female weakness, are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. Out of the great volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than likely she has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

score of Hungarians. Tuesday night one of the men fired a lamp with gasoline and when he lighted it he was given the biggest surprise of his life.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

To Quiet Title.
In the case of Thomas C. Potter,
William Bayles and Sarah Coffman vs. Wm. E. Miller, Minnie Jacobs, James Jacobs and David M. Keller, administrator with the will annexed of Malinda J. Miller, deceased, the plaintiffs have filed a petition in the Common Pleas court to quiet title to lands in Etwa township. Plaintiffs say that William E. Miller has wrongfully taken possession of and seeks to control and manage all of the premises without any authority of law, and threatens to and is about to sell and dispose of growing crops, timber, fixtures and appurtenances thereon and that unless restrained by order of the court will cause irreparable injury to the premises and great loss to the plaintiff.

Plaintiff asks that upon the final hearing of this case that the court may find, order and bequeath the fee simple title of the premises to be in the plaintiffs and that their title may be quieted against the claim or claims of all the defendants, except David Keller, administrator. And that a temporary order be issued restraining him from interfering or damaging the premises, and that upon a final hearing the court may grant such other equitable relief as may be necessary. J. M. Lewis, attorney for plaintiff.

Habeas Corpus proceedings commenced by Frank Watkins against Sheriff Redman to secure the release ment of his brother James is unlawful and not upon any writ or injunction or judgment of a court. James Watkins was a former well known painter of this city, but for some time past he has been an inmate of the State Hospital for the Insane at Columbus. Several days ago he made his escape from that institution and came to Newark, where he was arrested on a telegram from the superintendent of the institution.

Judge Brister refused the writ of habeas corpus and remanded Watkins to the care of the superintendent of the State Hospital at Columbus. An officer took Mr. Watkins to Columbus on the 2:15 electric car.

The Republican Convention.

In the Republican state convention at Dayton, Ohio, Messrs. Dick and Foraker are having their own way, despite the strenuous opposition of the mass of the Republican voters of Ohio represented at the convention by Congressman Burton and Harry M. Daugherty. It was a fight between the "Machine" and the people and the "Machine" won.

Beneficiaries of patronage, postmasters and other appointees, present and prospective, are there to do the bidding of Foraker and Dick, and it will not be at all surprising if before this remarkable convention adjourns, a resolution is adopted indorsing Foraker for the presidency.

Dick and Foraker have written the platform, which, curiously enough, endorses both the President and the Senators. They might as well have endorsed jointly his satanic majesty and the ten commandments. Dick is elected state chairman of the executive committee and if there is anything else he wants, he will get it.

Mr. Foraker in his amazing speech last night figuratively slapped the President in the face by referring to Governor Harris' idea of a "square deal."

All of this reminds one of Mr. Burton's prophecy of Tuesday when he said that the fight has just begun. Mr. Burton is right. The fight will continue till November, and when the votes are counted Messrs. Dick and Foraker will see where the Republicans of Ohio stand on the question of bossism and Dickism, and will at the same time see that Republicans of Ohio are in favor of standing by President Roosevelt. They can't do it by supporting Foraker or Dick.

Roosevelt's Ingratitude to Democrats

When some Republican newspaper or politician please tell the people what the last Congress did that had not been inaugurated or suggested by Democrats long before Theodore Roosevelt was elected President? Who started the railroad rate regulation sentiment in this county? The Democrats.

Who started every other reform that has benefitted the people, reforms that were started and suggested by Democrats and then put into law by the aid of Democratic votes? The Democrats.

Yet Mr. Roosevelt is lending his aid to the election of a Republican majority in the next House, and at the same time he knows that not one of his reforms would have been tolerated by the Republican majority of the last House had it not been for the powerful backing he received from the Democrats.

All of which shows Mr. Roosevelt's ingratitude and injustice to his Democratic supporters.

The Trust Victory in Maine That "Crushed Gompers."

"Gompers Crushed—Maine Republicans by Ballot Repudiate Labor Leader." Such are the headlines of a Republican organ of national prominence in its announcement of the election news from Maine. The general tone of all the leading metropolitan Republican organs is the same. They are hilarious because their party has "crushed Gompers" in Maine, where he went to fight the battle of Labor against Labor's pronounced enemies in Congress. Congressman Littlefield, who had fought every measure in the last House in the interest of Labor, barely pulled through by a very much decreased majority, but it was enough to set the big Republican organs into a state of ecstasy and hilarity. And these same organs who are jollifying over Labor's defeat, are the self-same organs which have been all these years prating about "protection to American Labor." But the cloven foot is exposed. It is protection to Trusts that these Republican organs have been contending for all the time, and the immense sums of corporation money that flooded the Littlefield congressional district, shows in whose interest is the victory won that "crushed Gompers."

The victory of Senators Dick and Foraker at the Dayton convention was accomplished by the aid of corporation money, according to the staff correspondent of the Columbus Dispatch. Of course the corporations and trusts will be always ready and willing to contribute their money to keep such valuable champions of their interests in power as Foraker and Dick.

Protection Is for Trusts, Not for Farmers.

The farmer who votes the Republican ticket is scratching his head and thinking seriously that something is wrong with the protective tariff. He finds the price of wheat in the Chicago market has fallen 12 cents a bushel in less than six weeks; he also finds the price of corn and oats falling, and that all he buys still continues at top prices. He has been told by the Republican leaders, and the Republican newspapers, that protectionism is the salvation of the farmer, because it increases the home market for his products and keeps up prices, and therefore produces prosperity for the farmer as well as the protected trust. As long as the wheat crop was only a moderately good one in the United States, with short crops abroad, protectionism seemed to work out as the stand patters said it would. But now comes a bumper crop of wheat, weighing over 60 pounds to the bushel, and good prospects for crops abroad, and down comes the price to the export basis—that is the price the Liverpool market, where all countries compete, is willing to pay—and the beautiful theory of protectionism is found lacking.

The farmer finds the tariff on wheat at 25 cents a bushel is a deduction and a snare, for of course no wheat is imported because we raise more than can be consumed here, and have to hunt a foreign market for the surplus.

It will be rather awkward for Republican speakers in the campaign, to explain to the farmers how the tariff protects them when they have to sell in the cheapest market, and buy in the dearest. There should be no such trouble in explaining why all the farmer buys has increased on the average 48 per cent because the Republican speakers can point with pride to the prosperity of the trusts and combines who are protected by a high-wall tariff.

It is evident that these comparatively few protected interests are of more consequence to the Republican managers, who declare they will stand pat on the high tariff, than the great agricultural interests that are the chief basis of all the wealth of the United States. The protected trusts will continue to put up all the campaign funds the Republican managers need, for they, and not the farmers, are the beneficiaries of this high-wall tariff.

A GREAT NOVEL.

Another notable offering in the Sunday World's remarkable series of new novels by their greatest living writers will be published in a special section on the four Sundays in October. It is by Gertrude Atherton, and is a thrilling tale of love and adventure, entitled "Reganoy." This novel was written by Mrs. Atherton especially for this series, and will be unobtainable elsewhere until its conclusion in the Sunday World.

began between the United States and Spain. The long military occupation of Cuba by the United States troops afforded an opportunity to army officers to become familiar with the island and probably no portion of the earth is better known to the military authorities of the United States than the island of Cuba.

It is stated officially that it is the purpose of the administration to proceed with great deliberation in dealing with the Cuban question, and it was said on the highest authority that there will be no intervention by the United States unless the rebellion assumes the proportions of a general conflagration. It is further stated that there has been no application for intervention from any authorized party, which statement answered an inquiry as to whether any of the foreign governments whose citizens are suffering from depredations of the Cuban insurgents had called upon the United States government to step in and preserve the peace.

Another interesting statement from officials was to the effect that careful inquiry satisfied the administration that none of the American capitalists interested in Cuban institutions and properties expressed a desire for intervention by this government under the terms of the Platt amendment.

On the contrary it was stated these people advised against such action, figuring that it would precipitate the destruction of their properties during the long guerrilla warfare that might be expected to follow the landing of United States troops in Cuba. They realized that if they were paid for the property destroyed, many international lawyers holding that a government is not responsible for losses caused by rebels, it might be a matter of ten or more years before any adjustment could be had, so they prefer peace under present conditions.

BUSINESS MEN HOLD MEETING

TALK OF ORGANIZING COMPANY TO BUILD NEW ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT.

Meeting Addressed by A. L. Ellis of Chicago, Electrical Contractor and Manufacturer.

A meeting of a number of business men of the city was held in Taylor hall Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of promoting and considering the installation of a co-operative electric light plant, to be owned and operated for and by the business men.

The meeting was addressed by A. L. Ellis of Chicago, electrical contractor and manufacturer, who has been here for the past three weeks with his mother, Mrs. Mary Ellis, and his sister, Mrs. Walter Horn, both of this city, engaged in personal business here and in Zanesville and vicinity. The advisability of installing a co-operative plant was discussed to quite an extent at the meeting and the result may be an independent electric plant for all of the merchants here.

A more detailed account of the meeting will be given in Thursday's issue of the Advocate.

THE FIRST RADIUM.

Its Production Almost Made Famous of Curie and Her Wife.

When Professor Curie was run over and killed on a street of Paris not long ago the entire world recognized that it had lost one of its foremost experimenters. Yet it was only six years ago that the wonderful element, radium, which he and his wife discovered, passed almost unnoticed among the exhibits in a Paris exhibition, and a stranger, seeking the physicist, found him only through the lucky help of a street gamin.

In the 1900 exhibition in Paris, says London Truth, the compilers of the catalogue and the jurors entirely overlooked the tiny vial containing its speck of radium, which the Curies had sent. An exhibitor of diamonds, annoyed because its presence spoiled the color of his jewels, had put it out of sight. An English visitor, however, who had read a reference to the discovery in an obscure journal, hunted it up and later set out to find the discoverers.

He went to many places, the Mines School, the Sorbonne and elsewhere, but no one in any of them could tell him anything of the Curies. At last, by a strange chance, he ran across a gamine who had heard of radium from a chum who worked as an attendant at the City of Paris industrial laboratory, where Curie then worked. By this roundabout information the Englishman was brought to Professor Curie, who was a little amazed, but pleasantly so, to find that some one was at last interested in what they were doing.

Mme. Curie, he said, had herself pounded in a mortar with her own hands all the pitchblende from which the speck of radium had been obtained. Pitchblende was costly, and she had not wasted a grain. She had ruined her hands in the work.

They were then spending every penny for pitchblende. Mme. Curie had given up gloves entirely and was wearing very old and badly patched cheap shoes and old fashioned clothes. The professor had on old shoes and a threadbare coat—his only coat. Their little girl was dressed as cheaply. But by their economy and their diligence they had enriched humanity incalculably by their discoveries in radio activity and their isolation of radium itself.

An Improved Postal Card.

Our postal card is in need of improvement. The writing on it is in plain view, to be read at leisure by any postal employee from the time it leaves the sender until it arrives at its destination. It is safe to assume that this has been the cause of no little trouble and embarrassment.

During my first stay in Brazil I found that the postal card there in use was supplied with a flap or covering of dark paper which when gummed down completely hid the writing. This flap was attached to the back of the card, the edge gummed and perforated, the insertion of a finger tip being all that was required to open it. It served the purpose of a letter at half the expense. I fail to see why our government did not adopt this style of postal card long ago, the additional expense being so slight as still to leave a handsome profit.—Chicago News.

Shakespeare on Hand.

Some pessimists are inclined to think that Shakespeare is quite dead. Good news, however, comes from Hungary. A correspondent has recently seen a theatrical poster there which runs as follows:

ROMEO AND JULIET.
A sensational tragedy, universally renowned, in five acts, with songs, dances and Benial Fire.
By William Shakespeare.
The Author will be present at the Performance.

Richard Lion Heart.

Englishmen are now talking about "repatriating" the dust of Richard Lion Heart, which has been lying these many centuries in the abbey of Fontevault, near Saumur, in the valley of the Loire, France. Negotiations to this effect are now pending between Sir Francis Bertie, British ambassador at Paris, and the French government, and it is expected that Britain's wishes will be complied with. As long ago as 1869 Lord Derby begged Napoleon III. to permit the removal of the remains to England, but the negotiations were interrupted by the Franco-German war.

Appraising a Gilded Joss.

An insurance man who has been busy for some months with the problems of adjustment arising from the San Francisco fire says that one of the queerest questions was the loss on a Chinaman's joss, a big gilded god. "The adjuster found that some sixty or seventy minor josses were also insured. When he reported this we certainly had a merry time trying to figure how much a god was worth who couldn't care for himself. But we finally arranged a scale of values that satisfied everybody."

Ink For Fountain Pens.

Do not use ordinary writing ink in your fountain pen, as it will corrode and render your pen useless unless cleaned very often. Take an old type-writer ribbon, turn over it a pint of hot water and let it stand a day or so, stirring frequently. Turn the ink thus made into a bottle, cork securely, and you have an ink which will flow freely and not corrode your pen. If the type-writer ribbon has considerable ink on it you can thin your ink by adding more water after the first pint is made.

Granville, Sept. 12.—Mr. S. J. Everett, who lives with his son, Bert Everett, a short distance west of the village, had the misfortune to meet with an accident on Tuesday that was very painful in its consequences. He was returning to the house, from the melon patch with a heavy load of melons on his back when he slipped and fell and broke one rib. Dr. Barnes attended the injury. PATROL BOXES ARE BEING LOCATED Chief Sheridan is Redistricting City and Two More Officers May be Necessary.

People who happened into the Mayor's office in the city building, Wednesday afternoon, might have gotten an idea into their heads that he was the new water works engineer. Such is not the case, however. In spite of the fact that the chief stood bending over a city map and blueprint, he is in no way concerned in the building of the new municipal plant. He is only working on the police patrol reporting system which will be a part of the new police patrol system being built on Fourth street. The chief took a blue print of the city and marked it off into districts. The patrol boxes from which the officers will be required to report each night, will be stationed in these districts wherever the police department feels the need of an officer's presence. There are too districts in the city too large for one officer to cover. One district is bounded on the east by Hudson avenue and on the south by Granville street, with the corporation line on the north and west. It is planned to cut this district into two districts and put two officers on the territory formerly patrolled by one man. A district similar in size is in East Newark from the railroads and East Main street east and north. This territory will also be divided.

It is the intention of the Public Safety Board to have the boxes installed and ready for use as soon as the building is ready for occupancy. The telephone system will be furnished by the Bell telephone people and the wires will be strung over their poles.

MARION TEACHERS

Complain of Oil on School Room Floors—Suggested They Should Wear Bloomers.

Superintendent Frank of the Marion schools, reported to his board of education that the teachers of the Marion schools had been complaining about the condition of the floors in the various buildings. He stated that the teachers claim they were not properly oiled and are so greasy that they ruin their skirts. The sentiment of the board did not exactly harmonize with the complaint. A member suggested that the teachers wear short skirts in the school room and then they would not get them on the greasy floors. Mr. Frank replied that they would get short skirts greased in stooping over in picking-up chalk etc.

Mr. Dickerson unlocked the perplexing proposition by suggesting that they all wear bloomers. The suggestion was well taken and unanimously voiced by the members present.

THOS. J. GAINOR RETURNS TO NEWARK

Thos. J. Gainor, formerly of this city, where for fifteen years he was connected with the E. H. Everett Co., has resigned his position as vice president of the Coshocton Glass Co., with which he has been connected for some time past and of which he was the organizer, to accept a position with the American Bottle company in the E. H. Everett factory here.

Mr. Gainor organized the Coshocton company several years ago, and held considerable stock in it until quite recently, when he sold the greater part of his interest, but retained his position as vice president.

During Mr. Gainor's former residence in this city he gathered about him a large number of intimate and influential friends, who will be very glad to welcome him back to this city. Mr. Everett was fortunate in inducing Mr. Gainor to return.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. Send 3¢ in stamps, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

NEWARK BOYS JOINING NAVY

UP TO DATE FIFTEEN YOUNG MEN ENLISTED IN UNCLE SAM'S SERVICE.

Recruiting Officers Pay Visit to the Wehrle Foundry and Are Impressed by the Sight.

The recruiting party of the United States navy, whose office was opened in the basement of the court house Monday, will leave on Saturday noon for Marietta, and from there they will take in the principal cities of the South. Already there have been 15 applicants, of which only two have failed to pass the examination. Some others of course have not yet qualified to the fullest extent, but of those who have and are accepted are the following: C. L. Kincaid, E. J. Swick, Thos. E. Clark, Ralph H. Shafter, Harry T. Urban, Bertram L. Redman, Robert Baker and E. L. W. Penchele. C. W. Bethel, 22, Hendrysburg, O. F. M. Collins, 21, Warsaw, O. Up to date, there have been thirteen enlistments at the Newark recruiting station.

Recruiting Officer Lieut. J. H. Comfort, in speaking with an Advocate reporter Wednesday morning, expressed himself as greatly pleased with the prospects for recruits here and stated that for its population, Newark was making an excellent showing so early in the week and bids fair toward reaching the record mark now held by Lafayette, Ind. The officers state that the young men who have enlisted here so far are of a very desirable type for the navy and are even beyond their expectations. Lieutenant Comfort stated Wednesday that Ohio and Indiana had been especially fruitful for his party and within a very few weeks a larger number of recruits had been secured in these states than in any others in the same length of time.

The party, which is composed of two officers and five enlisted men, paid a visit to the Wehrle stove foundries in uniform Tuesday afternoon and were much impressed with the treatment received at the hands of the officials and also surprised at the immense proportions and capacity of the mammoth stove works.

For a mild, easy action of the bowels, a single dose of Doan's Kidney Pills is enough. Treatment cures habitual constipation. 25 cents a box. Ask your druggist for them.

Has Decided to Begin Work at Once on the New Coast Line to Portland, Ore.

In conjunction with the Santa Fe, the line will be rushed to Eureka and from there the Southern Pacific will build north to meet the extension of the Oregon line which it is running south from Corvallis. It was originally planned to delay the work on this line until next year, but the activity of Gould forces in California and the probability that the Western Pacific will be finished much sooner than at first seemed possible is believed to have caused change in the plan. When completed to Portland, the Southern Pacific will have a coast line from Los Angeles to Portland of over 1,000 miles.

Clark of Central City, is dying at his home as the result, it is alleged, of an attack with a hatchet in the hands of his stepson, a 20-year-old youth named Preston. It is charged that the stepson entered the Clark home in the absence of his mother and started a quarrel with his stepfather. The latter ordered him out of the house, whereupon Preston, it is said, seized a hatchet and drove the blade into the breast, back, shoulders and skull of the attorney. Preston attempted to escape, but was captured and placed in jail.

Meanwhile two thousand negroes set upon the white employees of the park and a fire for all night followed. The police reserves were called and the rioters quelled for a time. Walter East's crew from Akron, with Smiling Buff Ehman at the helm, gave the Newark bunch an awful slap with the kalsomine brush at Wehrle park Tuesday afternoon, and when the smoke of battle cleared away there were six tallies on the score board for Akron and a handsome row of goose eggs for the Newark boys.

It was partly Webb's fault that Akron scored six runs but not altogether. The youthful southpaw had a world of speed and some good curves but the miserable support behind him was disheartening and the Blues got a total of thirteen hits.

As for Buff Ehman, all hands will take off their hats to him. There is no doubt but that he is the best pitcher in the league, though his games won and lost may not look as good as Kennedy's or Glassburner's.

He went the whole game and allowed but one big. This was a clean drive to right by Scottie Winters. It came in the sixth inning, and though none were out, the Molders were unable to take advantage of the opportunity. Webb followed Scottie and fled to Strood. Davis took a walk, but Wratten hit to Swartz and was out at first and Schweitzer fanned.

In the seventh, Iger got a pretty nearly hit. Drake led off in that frame and worked Ehman or a pass. Snyder drove one to Mathay in left field and was out. Iger hit a hot one to territory between short and third and without any one on bases, he would have beat it out, but Butler threw to second and caught Drake, robbing Iger of a hit.

In the whole game there were five errors credited to the Newark team. Each error was costly. In the sixth, when three runs were scored, Wratten threw to Iger and the throw went into the swamp between the right foul line and bleacher fence, where it was lost in the grass. Two men scored while the batter took third on the play. He scored later on a clean hit.

In the seventh Nallin hit safely. He stole second and Scottie Winters threw to cut off the runner. The throw was low but Haval should have gotten it. He let it go through him but Schweitzer was backing him up nicely and Nallin stopped at second. The German Blonde threw again to Haval and the captain let it go through him the second time, and Nallin took third, while the ball rolled to the center of the diamond. Webb was backing up third and was not in the box, so Haval was not backed up at all.

Taking it all in all, the Newark team performed badly in the presence of company. Bobby Quinn, the B. M. of the Columbus A. A. club was in the press box and saw the Molders unmercifully beaten. He was charitable however, and said that even the Champs play the same kind of ball occasionally.

Quinn is watching one or two members of the Akron team. It is believed that he is after Shortstop Willie in pretty style. He is the same old boy with the stick as he was when playing with the Kent team.

Pitcher Loner, released by New Castle has applied for an umpire's position to President Monton. The umpiring staff contains little good material now and can be improved by Loner's appointment.

While in Youngstown Monday with Pittsburgh "Hans" Wagner, the pitcher, was treated by Bonsetter Reese. Wagner was injured in the leg in a recent game. He injured his leg again yesterday and it is now in a serious condition. The Bonsetter was able to relieve the German a little, but it will be many days before he is back in the game.

NO CHANGE MADE IN NEWARK B. B. CO.

THE PRESENT OFFICERS WILL SERVE TO THE CLOSE OF THE SEASON.

Franchise Was Signed Over to Newark B. B. Company by the B. M. Meeting Tuesday.

The baseball meeting scheduled for Tuesday night at which great things were to be developed to develop the results which were scheduled to take place behind the closed doors of the meeting. One thing was accomplished, however. The Newark B. B. franchise which has been working the Newark people for some time, was settled beyond the question of a doubt, and it is now the undisputed property of the Newark baseball company, not even the B. M. disputing the company ownership of the property.

It was intimated, but there must be a vacancy in the list of officers for the baseball company, but after the matter was discussed by a few of the conservative members of the club, it was decided that such an action this late in the season would not be advisable. Only three more scheduled games are to be played in Newark, and the changes could do no good now. It will soon be time for the re-election of officers, and the changes will be made then.

At Tuesday night's meeting the B. M. also claimed the Newark franchise signed over all rights to it to the Newark baseball company. This includes all players under contract here so there is now no doubt about the ownership of the men's contracts.

At the approaching league meetings, the local company will be represented not by the B. M., but by the president, J. R. Moser. This has been decided, and Mr. Moser will attend all meetings where the Newark club is to be represented.

AMUSEMENTS

UNCLE JOSH SPRUCEBY.

An intense heart story is unfolded in the charming comedy drama "Uncle Josh Spruceby" which comes to the Auditorium for matinee and night on Saturday, September 15. The plot of the play is taken from scenes of every day life. A country maiden who has a boarding school education meets the temple in the guise of a polished city dandy who turns out later to be a confidence man and who persuades the girl that the comfortable, if homely, Vermont home is too dull for her. She is induced to elope to the city. Uncle Josh goes to the city to search for his lost Nancy, and meets many adventures there. The comedy is furnished by Hans Von Bottenmeier, the "Just over Dutchman," and Sally Spruceby, who has no use for city folks. The play is well staged and acted by a company of capable people.

CURRENT THEATRE NEWS.

The declarations being made by certain prominent literary reviewers that it is impossible to transfer the story of Mrs. Edith Wharton's novel, "The House of Mirth," in part to the stage, is vigorously denied by the dramatist, Clyde Fitch, who collaborated with Mrs. Wharton in preparing the stage version. He insists that not only the atmosphere and characterizations of the novel are presented in the play, but also that the drama has not deviated from the story. Pay Davis has been chosen to depict the role of Lily Bart, the heroine of Mrs. Wharton's social story.

The theme of "Popularity" the new straight comedy by George M. Cohan concerning which there has been expressed so much interest, is now involving the character of a young actor who receives extreme favor from the public, and whose distinguishing characteristics are a clever and quiet wit and a dislike for ostentation. This is the first creation from Mr. Cohan's pen which has no interpretation of musical numbers. The cast which has been selected is attracting much attention, for it includes such distinguished players as Frederick de Bellville, Florence Rockwell and Edgar Selwyn.

A second season has been accorded to the "Mayor of Tokio," the musical comedy in which Richard Carle starred with success last year. The month of the cast will be maintained and the production will be given in the main class houses.

The management presenting the new comedy, "The House of Mirth," which obtained favor wherever it was presented, has been engaged by the same company which presented the piece originally. Heading this company are Dan Post, Janet Rankin, Ernest Lawson and Helen Rankin.

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—For some unknown reason some of the depositors of the Fibernia Savings bank started a run on the bank Tuesday. The Fibernia has $8,000,000 deposits and the deposits amount to over $50,000,000.

When the run started, policemen were called to keep the people in line and depositors were paid off as fast as they applied for their money. No advantage was taken by the bank of its rules requiring notice before a deposit could be withdrawn.

HARANGUED

In Fun About Government Ownership of Railways When a Train Killed Him.

Hinton, W. Va., Sept. 12—While standing on one of the double tracks of the C. & O. at Alderson and, in a spirit of fun, addressing a crowd of men in front of the Alderson Hotel on government ownership of railroads George Reynolds, connected with the Reynolds-Pence department store, of this place, was struck and instantly killed by a C. & O. fast freight. The decedent was one of the most prominent young men of the county, and a scion of an old and wealthy family.

JILTED

The Scion of Wealth For a Boyhood Sweetheart, but Divorced, She'll Wed the Former.

Cleveland, Sept. 12—Announcement was made last night that Miss Mabel Hart, daughter of Frank W. Hart, millionaire wholesale milliner, soon will wed John Gilchrist of the Gilchrist family, owners of vessels on the great lakes. Miss Hart jilted young Gilchrist two years ago on the eve of their wedding and departed with Philip McAbee of Painesville, a boyhood sweetheart. When they returned the bride's father met them at the station and kidnapping his daughter, took her home and forbade McAbee seeing her. A divorce soon followed and the young woman was restored to her maiden name. Gilchrist renewed his suit and their engagement followed.

BURNED

Herself to Death Because She Believed Her Lover Was Guilty of Unfaithfulness.

Toledo, Sept. 12—Because she believed her lover unfaithful, Ethel Williamson, aged 24 years, of Muncie, Ind., first swallowed carbolic acid in her room at the Palace hotel, then poured the contents of a kerosene lamp over her clothing and set fire to herself, dying at the Toledo Hospital as the result of her burns.

Attracted by her screams other inmates of the hotel ran to her room and found the girl standing with her body enveloped in flames. Her clothing was quickly torn from her, but not before her body, from shoulders to waist, was terribly burned.

DOZEN MEN

Shot and Killed, Three Fatally, in a Pitched Battle Between Negroes and Italians.

Hinton, W. Va., Sept. 12—As the result of a pitched battle between negroes and Italian laborers employed by Shenahan & Ireland, contractors, at work for the C. & O. railroad company at Allegheny Tunnel, Lloyd Peterson is dead, John Lewis and Peter Cahamell are dying and nine others are seriously injured.

The fight started over Peterson, a negro foreman, ordering an Italian to assist a negro laborer in some trivial task. The Italian, not understanding, paid no attention and Peterson kicked him, then knocked him down. In an instant both crews were at each other with knives, picks and crow-bars.

The Italian attacked by Peterson shot the foreman through the stomach with a Colt revolver, and in turn had his skull crushed by a crowbar in the hands of another negro. The fatally wounded were brought to the Holly Hospital at Hinton, while the others, who will recover, are under the care of a physician in the railroad camp.

HER DOLL

Buried in a Mock Funeral, and Then the Tot Was Accidental Shot Dead.

Cumberland, Md., Sept. 12—While holding a mock funeral yesterday with her little companions, Mary, 7 years of age, daughter of Sylvester Emerick, a Pennsylvania locomotive engineer, of Elerslee, this county, was accidentally shot and killed by Eugene Smith, son of Dr. J. Carl Smith.

The children had just buried a doll near the Smith property when young Smith fired at a rat with a rifle. He killed the rodent but the bullet passed on through a fence, struck the Emerick child in the left side and passed through her heart. She advanced a few steps and fell dead.

Smith was not aware of the presence of the children. He is 19 years of age. Acting Coroner Jacob B. Humbird, who investigated, rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

THIS SEASON'S Y. M. C. A. COURSE

A SPLENDID PROGRAM WILL BE PROVIDED DURING WINTER AT TAYLOR HALL.

Frederick Warde Comes October 2, Opening the Series—Course Tickets For Sale.

The management of the Y. M. C. A. lecture course tickets for the coming season wish to say to the public generally that they have secured beyond estimating entertainments ever before offered. Frederick Warde, the eminent tragedian, comes October 2. He is a ripe scholar and actor of fame, having left the stage to devote his remaining life to Shakespeare's works. He will give "Macbeth," "Julius Caesar," or any tragedy the patrons may desire, impersonating every character with exquisite running comments.

"The Rivals" or "Rip Van Winkle" will be given during the course by a most attractive impersonator.

Paul Dunbar, Ruth McNery Stuart and Joel Chandler Harris will be a combination imitatively given by P. M. Pearson, the most delightful speaker in the Lyceum Bureau.

Then follow "Four Welsh Prize Singers," with a fine reader chosen from a hundred applicants, a graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston. The singers have won many prizes at the Welsh eisteddfods.

"Music—Magic—Mystery," by Josephy, educated in Europe, will handle his violin and magic work in an entire program.

"The Man From Vermont," Charles Taggart, a clever, down-east Yankee, will come before the public with his violin, and play himself with his humorous and refined wit into your hearts.

A "Lyric Glee Club," with complete repertoire, by young men who are assisted by Miss Mary Agnes Doyle, a specialist in Irish dialect and literature, delights everybody. Among her numbers she gives "Mr. Dooley" with great approval.

Some one says: "I have never heard her equal in presenting the best Irish stories."

"The Brockway Ladies' Concert Company," a company of equality, not a "star" surrounded by mediocrity. The lecture bureau assures their ability to please.

"The Elma B. Smith Company" appears with Miss Smith as the greatest imitator of children, birds and babes now before the public. She appears in costume while giving her impersonations of children.

A violinist of ability by a young man, contralto singer and pianist! is in her company, and form a most pleasing program.

Ten distinct entertainments in all, for one dollar and fifty cents, seats reserved free for the entire course. This does not mean cheap entertainments as to quality. Booked in a circuit coming from Columbus to Newark, to Mt. Vernon and other adjacent towns, renders it possible to secure them at what is a surprising price.

It will be the object to see as many buyers as possible, but to facilitate matters, all who wish to be sure of a seat, as Taylor hall has a limited seating capacity, should call on or send Miss M. G. Wallace, 120 North Fifth street, as she has the entire charge of the sale of tickets. It would be of great advantage for the high school young people to attend these entertainments.

PILLOW

Had Gems While Merchant Slept and When He Awoke They Had Disappeared.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 12—Sol. Urbach, a diamond merchant, with offices at 47 and 49 Maiden Lane, New York City, was relieved of $40,000 worth of diamonds and a handsome watch and fob while on a Pullman sleeper which reached here this morning attached to a New York express.

Urbach was on his way to Baltimore on a business mission, and when he retired in the lower section of a berth on the Pullman he placed the bag containing the diamonds and the watch beneath his pillow. When he awoke the car had been sidetracked at Union station, and upon reaching under his pillow he was amazed to find that his treasure had vanished. In the meantime, many of the passengers on the car had left, and despite Urbach's efforts to have some of them searched, it availed nothing.

Urbach has reported the loss to the Baltimore police, but at nearly all of the game were upset, it is not thought that he has much chance to recover his valuables.

ARCHIE S. WHITE BUYS "WOODLEA"

FORMER NEWARK MAN COMES INTO POSSESSION OF THE SHEPARD ESTATE.

Consideration Said to be From One to One and a Half Million Dollars.

A dispatch from New York announces the purchase of the late Elliott F. Shepard's country place, "Woodlea," on the Hudson, by Mr. Archibald S. White, for a consideration said to be between one and one-half million dollars. The total cost of the estate is said to have been originally from four to six million dollars.

Mr. White, who is now about 39 years old, was a cash boy at King's shoe store 25 years ago. One day a traveling man took a fancy to young White when he visited Newark, and asked the lad to go east with him. The proposition was accepted and from that time on young White began to rise. He organized the salt trust, and hereby made his first big stake. Today he is president of the Atlantic Security company and has extensive mining interests in Southern Ohio. He is the man who promoted the Cincinnati gas deal and is still interested in the salt industry and many other enterprises. The fact that he is several times a millionaire is evidenced by his purchase of "Woodlea."

Mr. White was the boyhood chum of Attorney Charles W. Miller of this city, and the friendship established in youth continues. Mr. White occasionally visits Newark, and often Mr. Miller is his guest in New York. Mr. Miller is Mr. White's representative in a number of Ohio business matters.

New York, Sept. 12.—Nothing remains but the signing of the necessary deeds and other papers to transfer Woodlea, country place of the late Elliott F. Shepard, in Scarborough-on-the-Hudson, to Archibald S. White, a wealthy business man. The consideration, it is said, is between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000.

Woodlea is one of the most elaborate country places in America. It was originally made up of farms, and comprises in all about 250 acres. Its total cost has been variously estimated at from four to six millions of dollars, and it has often been said that as a matter of fact, not even its owners knew how much money had been expended on it.

Archibald S. White is well known in the financial district. He was the organizer of the National Salt company, retiring before that concern reached an untimely end, and more recently was at the head of a syndicate which purchased the Cincinnati Gas and Electric company and similar companies in other cities.

Mrs. White was Miss Olive Celeste Moore, daughter of Judge Moore of Minneapolis. Miss Moore, after an education abroad, went on the stage and was a member of the Bostonians and afterward of the Red Feather company. Miss Moore met Mr. White then, and their marriage in the home of the bride's parents was one of the society events of the year in Minneapolis.

Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. White have resided part of the time in Paris and the other part here, where they have apartments in the Lorraine.

SMITHS

Too Plentiful, He Said, and Just Before His Marriage Had His Name Changed.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 12.—The Smith family has lost one member, while the Bradford clan has gained one. Among the graduates of the University of Wisconsin last June was Ernest Bradford Smith, son of J. B. Smith of Madison, a prohibitionist and at one time candidate of that party for governor. Two weeks ago Ernest Smith was married to Miss Florence B. Mott of Neenah, daughter of Judge Mott.

So far this marriage was just a plain every day affair. But the day before the wedding, it is found, Ernest Bradford Smith went into court and had his name changed to Ernest Smith Bradford. It was very easily done, as under the laws of Wisconsin such changes can be made by going before the proper authorities and paying 50 cents.

Smith Bradford then took a train for Neenah, where Miss Mott became Mrs. Bradford. The young man said, he wished to change his name as there were too many Smiths in the state with his initials.

"Money's No Account Until Used" is a proverb often quoted, but it does not lessen the foolishness of throwing it away, especially when there is one thing that is sure to come—old age, and that, without a cent, and then what bitter thoughts arise when we find ourselves a dependent.

The only time to do anything is NOW—the great glorious NOW—when all things are going our way, with money plentiful and hopes high, then is when we should commence to save.

Let us help you to be independent.
